Widow Brings Action for $5,000 Against Fidelity Casualty Company.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Roanoke, Va. September 10.—A case that may yet develop interesting features was by agreement in Corporation Court io-day continued until the October term, pending a compromise, It is that of Mrs. Nannie C. Dilliard, administratrix of the estate of her late husband, B. B. Dillard, against the Fidelity Casualty Company, to recover $5,000 insurance on the life of her husband, who died from a pistol shot received in his home some months ago. In the event the case goes to trial, it is expected evidence will be produced to determine the exact manner in which Dillard met his death. The widow claims he shot himself accidentally.
